Whole Person Leadership Regional Seminar
Balancing Sharing and Caring

Saturday, September 20, 2014

Pasadena City College

1570 E. Colorado Blvd., Pasadena, CA 91106

8:00am – 5:00pm

Two issues for women of all ages and in all stages of their lives and careers are: Giving Back to the Community....making the world a better place, helping others and making a difference; AND Work Life Balance....having a successful career, being a devoted spouse/partner, supermom, or caregiver. Keynote speaker, Dr. Marjorie Kagawa-Singer, Professor at UCLA School of Public Health and Asian American Studies Center, will speak about these issues and their impact upon one's health and well-being. There will also be panels composed of Millennials, Generation Xers, and Baby Boomers to discuss each of these topics and the issues and opportunities related to each stage of life. The afternoon session will include a presentation on the Center's Whole Person Leadership model by Peggy Nagae, Program Director, and Rosie Abriam, Center CEO.

Early Bird Registration (ends Sept 5th)..... $90

Regular Conference Registration$125

Student Registration..... $45
