

HONORARY ADVISORY BOARD

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

The Asian Pacific American Leadership Project (APALP) is an organization dedicated to leadership training and the empowerment of Asian Pacific Americans (APAs) in public service. APALP is looking for energetic, hardworking and dedicated individuals interested in making a difference and contributing to the community.

APALP is actively involved in the political empowerment of the diverse APA community. Dozens of individuals have participated in APALP’s training program over the years, with many going on to win election to public office at the local and state level, and others serving in senior leadership positions in public sector agencies.

Description: Intern

The intern will work to further APALP’s mission and assist with a number of activities, special projects, research assignments and administrative duties. This is a fantastic opportunity to learn about political empowerment, campaigns, fundraising, public affairs, and community organizing.

This position is unpaid. We will work with the university in obtaining credit, and can offer letters of recommendation, and referrals for future employment.

Desired Qualifications

- Local graduate or undergraduate student
- Good written and verbal communication skills and strong computer skills
- Interest in politics and community service

Location

- Position located in Pasadena.

This is a voluntary position. We would like interns to work at least 15 hours per week and to commit for at least a full semester/term. Some events and meetings may take place outside of normal business hours. We will be flexible with scheduling and working off site.

This is an excellent opportunity to gain exposure to politics, public policy and community outreach and work to empower the APA community.

If interested, please send a copy of your resume to Thomas Wong:
twong@apalp.org.

APALP’s mission is to engage the APA community in active civic participation by creating, supporting, building and strengthening the local community infrastructure to help prepare and train qualified APA leaders for public service.
