

Victims of Internet Facilitated Sex Crimes: Advocacy, Protection and Legal Remedies

Tuesday, March 4, 2014
8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Los Angeles Police Department
Deaton Auditorium
100 West 1st Street
Los Angeles, CA 90012

This training is free.
MCLE credit offered to attorneys.
Meals and Parking are NOT included.
NO food or beverages are allowed in the auditorium.

This training is presented by ICAN, CSEC and the Los Angeles City Attorney's Office, who will define nonconsensual pornography, Internet facilitated sex crimes, including sextortion, revenge pornography and cyberstalking. The training will also include the following:

- Information to increase awareness and skills in identifying the harm to victims;
- Current data and trends;
- Civil and criminal remedies, federal vs. state legal issues;
- Victim support, victim rights issues and resources available;
- Paths to protection and justice available, sharing way to improve protection and advocacy efforts; and,
- Training on Internet safety for service providers to share with child victims, guardians and adult victims.

Who Will Benefit: Please share this flier with other professionals who may want to attend.

Los Angeles County professionals who work with minors and adults who have been victimized by Internet facilitated sex crimes. Legal Aid and NGO attorneys, schools, nonprofit mental health therapists, child protective services, school counseling and security, government and nonprofit victim services including sexual assault and domestic violence service providers, law enforcement, prosecutors and child advocacy centers.

To Register: Send email to M. Donna Uy-Barreta with the L.A. City Attorney's Office at m.donna.uy-barreta@lacity.org by Wednesday, February 26, 2014. Include the following in your subject line: ICAN/CSEC/LACA Training. Your registration will be confirmed via return email prior to the training.

For questions not related to registration or logistics, please contact Debbie Deem, VS FBI at 310-996-3582.