

CANDIDATE INFORMATION GUIDE

"BE A VOICE IN YOUR COMMUNITY"

WHO CAN RUN TO REPRESENT THEIR NEIGHBORHOOD?

You can if you: live, work, rent or own property, attend school, worship, volunteer, or participate in an organization that meets in and/or serves that neighborhood.

Each neighborhood has unique board seats designed to represent its diversity. During a Neighborhood Council election year, go to clerk.lacity.org/elections to see a list of available board seats for election.

WHAT ARE NEIGHBORHOOD COUNCILS?

Neighborhood Councils are City-certified local groups made up of people who live, work, own property or have some other connection to a neighborhood. Neighborhood Council Board Members are elected or selected to their positions by the people in the respective neighborhoods themselves.

Neighborhood Councils hold regular meetings where board members and stakeholders review various topics and address those which affect their neighborhood. Your Neighborhood Council's structure is defined by your community's input.

WHO VOTES IN NEIGHBORHOOD COUNCIL ELECTIONS?

Stakeholders/members of the community vote. Voters may include those who live, work, own property, or rent in the neighborhood. Neighborhood Councils have unique board seats such as youth, seniors, nonprofits, business owners, etc., on which to vote.

WHY PARTICIPATE IN A NEIGHBORHOOD COUNCIL?

- To be a community advocate.
- To work with other community members to make a difference.
- To give a voice to neighborhood concerns.

Connect to City Hall: have a say in City budgets and what happens in your neighborhood.
