SUMMARY

Asian Pacific Islander Forward Movement (APIFM) is a division of Special Service for Groups (SSG), a non-profit health and human service organization dedicated to building and sustaining community-based programs that address the needs of vulnerable communities. APIFM's mission is to cultivate healthy, long-lasting, and vibrant Asian and Pacific Islander communities through grassroots organizing.

We are looking for a part-time driver to deliver produce to CSA sites, restaurants, community organizations, and corner stores throughout Los Angeles. APIFM has established a local distribution hub called Food Roots (www.foodroots.co) which connects local and sustainably grown Asian specialty foods to communities and businesses in the greater Los Angeles area while supporting Asian American small farms and other farmers of color in California. We are also working with Leadership for Urban Renewal Network (LURN) and L.A. Food Policy Council (LAFPC) to run a food buyers cooperative program entitled, "Community Markets Purchasing Real Affordable Foods" (COMPRAs Foods). The COMPRA Foods program consolidates the buying power of small grocers in low-income neighborhoods and leverages their collective purchases to secure better prices on quality fruits and vegetables. These programs are helping to improve and provide access to more fresh, healthy, and culturally relevant foods to communities across L.A. Under the direct supervision of the APIFM Program Manager – Food Roots, the Project Specialist will be responsible for:
