

AWARE-LA Presents...

Unmasking Whiteness

A Summer Institute | July 23-26, 2015

AWARE-LA is offering its workshop series on building white anti-racist practice and community in an intensive, 4-day institute for white people.

Deepen your self-awareness and build community with other white people taking up work for social justice. Through personal reflection, small and large group dialogue, and experiential activities, this institute invites white people to explore...

The Meanings of Whiteness
White Privilege & Multiple Identities
How to Resolve Guilt & Shame
Institutional Racism and
The Development of an Anti-Racist Practice & Identity

We will consider how being white shapes our lives, discover our role as white people in the struggle for social justice, and examine how to build stronger alliances with people of color.

Unmasking Whiteness | A Summer Institute

July 23-26, 2015

Mount St. Mary's College

Doheny Campus, Downtown Los Angeles

Registration: This institute is limited to the first 25 people who register.
A deposit of $50.00 will hold your place.

Early Registration: $200 by March 31, 2015 | $225 after April 1, 2015

Registration fee includes all workshop sessions & 3 lunches. Breakfast & dinner available onsite for purchase.
Limited scholarships are available.

This institute provides all participants with the opportunity to experience the core thinking and practice of AWARE-LA, a nationally recognized, grassroots organization working for racial justice.

Please visit www.awarela.org

Graduate or undergraduate credit available through UCCS certificate program.

Co-sponsored by Mount St. Mary's College – Education Department and Unity Bridges

Contact Shelly Tochluk at 213.477.2623 or stochluk@msmc.la.edu for more information.