

Environmental Justice Committee

In support of the People's Climate March in New York and other simultaneous events around the world to demand ACTION, NOT WORDS, the Environmental Justice (EJ) Committee invites you to join:

APIs and Climate Action Forum

- Understand the significance of a new global climate treaty slated to replace the Kyoto Protocol and its importance to have mandatory requirements instead of voluntary goals from environment and environmental justice advocates!
- Find out how disadvantaged communities can benefit from SB 535
- Get updated on the San Gabriel Mountains movement for designation as a National Monument
- Hear and share what APIs are doing to fight global warming & other environmental threats in our communities
- And MORE!

WHEN: Saturday, September 20, 2014, 12:00 to 1:45 PM

WHERE: KOA Bldg., 3727 W. 6th Street, cor. Harvard Blvd., Los Angeles 90020

RSVP: candrade@pacela.org

The EJ Committee and forum participants will then join the Southern California Climate Protest, a gathering of environmental activists and organizations on Wilshire Boulevard. The EJ Committee has reserved Harvard & Wilshire and Kingsley & Wilshire to bring people as a show of support. Please help us show a strong API voice on this crucial issue. Community organizations are also invited to endorse the action.

For more info, contact or visit:

Mark Masaoka, A3PCON Policy Director- mmasaoka@a3pcon.org; 213-239-0300

Celia V. Andrade, EJ Committee Chair- candrade@pacela.org; 213-989-3189

People's Climate March- <http://peoplesclimate.org/march>

A3PCON Environmental Justice Committee-

<http://www.asianpacificpolicyandplanningcouncil.org/environmental-justice-task-force/>